Message from the Principal

The theme of this book combines the old and the new. In my mind flashbacks of the past and of the present keep appearing. Flash backs of happy laughter and of nervous smiles. Flashbacks of students enthusiastically planning and of students floating on the surface of uncertainty. Flashbacks of busy classrooms and noisy playgrounds and of empty halls and clean blackboards.

At one of the corners of my office is a wrapped up banner that reads: "FGS Centennial 1889-1989" and behind the banner are stacks of pictures of graduates from day one, waiting to be displayed. I look at that corner every day and I see a hundred years of achievement, of growth and development of our Palestinian women and of their important leadership role within our community and everywhere else. A strong and profound sense of pride lifts up my spirits and gives me a boost to continue.

I am sure I am not the only one who feels that way. Every student, graduate and teacher has had many precious moments at FGS and looks back at school days as unforgettable experiences... and at their school as a home base that will be a beacon of education for many generations to come.

Dear graduates, dear friends, our schools are facing severe financial problems that threaten their continuity and survival. This institution that has been loyal to you all those years, at its hundredth birthday leans on you for support.

A building's strength is in its foundation. Friends Schools shall continue to be strong in those who brought life into its old and cold buildings... those who cared and are concerned.

كلمة مديرة المدرسة

بمناسبة مرور مائة عام على تأسيس مدرسة الفرندز للبنات تشكلت فكرة عمل هذا الكتاب والذي يجمع بين القديم والجديد.

... الماضي والحاضر... خيالات في ذهني تراودني ضحكات سعيدة وابتسامات متخوفة... طالبات تستعد بحماس وسرور... وطالبات ساجحات في بحر من الغموض والتساؤل... صور غرف صفوف مليئة وملاعب تضج باللعبات... وقاعات خالية وسكون في كل مكان.

في زاوية من زوايا مكتبي علم ملفوف وعليه مكتوب: «مدرسة الفرندز للبنات ١٨٨٩ - ١٩٨٩... عيد المائة عام». وخلف العلم صور خريجات منذ بداية هذا القرن! انظر الى تلك الزاوية كل يوم وارى سنوات من الانجازات والنمو وتطور للمرأة الفلسطينية ولدورها القيادي الهام في داخل مجتمعنا وخارجه. شعور بالفخر العميق يغمرني ويعزز في نفسي حتمية الصمود والاستمرارية...

هذه مشاعر لا تخالجي وحدي، فأنا على يقين تام ان كل طالبة، وخريجة ومعلمة تكتنز لديها ذكريات غالية في مدرسة الفرندز وتنظر الى تلك الذكريات كتجارب لا تنسى والى مدرستنا كبيت وقاعدة تنطلق منها شعلة تعليم وتربية اجيال واجيال قادمة.

عزيزاتي الخريجات، اعزائي اصدقاء مدرسة الفرندز ان مدارسنا تعاني من ازمة مالية خانقة تهدد استمراريتها وبقائها. هذا المعهد الذي طالما كان وفياً ومعطاءً لكم في عيده المؤوي يميل عليكم لكي تسندوه.

البناء قوي باساساته ومدرستنا ستبقى قوية وتستمد قوتها منكم انتم الذين اشعلتم حياة دافئة في داخل غرفها الباردة.

An early village school - Martha Totah, teacher

History

To write a history of Friends Girls School is to touch the memories of those women who were students of FGS, whose mothers, grandmothers, and great grandmothers were "Girls School girls". It is to weave a tapestry of a hundred years of Palestinian womanhood. It is to remember those happy, joyous, tearful, wonderfully difficult days of being school girls.

To write a history of Friends Girls School is to chronicle the lives of women... those strong, independent, dedicated women... who sparked with a dream, fanned that dream into blazing reality. It is to write of Quaker women from American farming communities, Lebanese women from the towns of the Lebanese mountains, Palestinian women from the villages of Palestine. It is to write of women striving to improve their lives and the lives of their sisters and daughters... to improve the lives of their husbands, fathers, brothers and sons... to improve the live of the wider community of which they were/are a part. It is to write of growth and maturity, of realizing potential; it is to write of love.

In the Palestine of 1869, as in much of the rural world, most of the women were unschooled. They were educated through experience. They were skilled in tending children, caring for families, toiling in the fields, working in the house, carrying the burdens placed upon them by birth and tradition. It was in 1869 that Eli and Sybil Jones, Quakers from China, Main visited Ramallah. They were touched by the lives of the women in this small Palestinian village. They saw there were schools for boys, but no school for girls. To quote their journal entry of that time: "We felt for the girls who had to carry the burdens and had no chance".

It was this concern to "give girls a chance" that they carried back to New England Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers). There it was met with apporval and the first day school for girls was opened shortly after. This school, the first of a number of small village schools for girls Quakers opened, was taught by Miriam Bayouk of Bireh. (A fifteen year old girl who had had several years of schooling in a Jerusalem school).

It wasn't until twenty years later in 1889 that enough funds were available to establish a boarding school for girls in Ramallah. Starting with only twelve girls and a Lebanese principal, Miss Katie Gabriel, the Girls Training Home (later renamed the Friends Girls School) opened its doors to the "girlhood of Palestine". Inspite of many obstacles (not the least in being, convincing fathers that girls could be educated!) the reputation of the spirit of the Girls Training Home and the caliber of its education grew. Gradually, girls were coming from all over Palestine to attend the Girls Training Home.

Girls Training Home Song

On thy hill slopes, vineyard terraced, Palestine! Palestine!
Where the flowers bloom the fairest, Palestine! Palestine!
Where the sea-born breezes blow,
As the seasons come and go,
Lies a village all should know, Palestine! Palestine!
Lies a village all should know, Palestine!

It is old in song and story, Palestine! Palestine!
And with legend it is hoary, Palestine! Palestine!
Not without historic fame,
Not without a prophet's claim,
And Ram Allah is its name, Palestine! Palestine!
And Ram Allah is its name, Palestine!

Years ago intent on duty, Palestine! Palestine!
Saintly pilgrims saw its beauty, Palestine! Palestine!
And they did not copy Rome,
Building altar, shrine and dome,
But they built this Training Home, Palestine! Palestine!
But they built this Training Home, Palestine!

For their thought was nobler, vaster, Palestine! Palestine!
How to serve their Lord and Master, Palestine! Palestine!
Than to build cathedrals vast
To Commemorate the past,
While thick darkness overcast, Palestine! Palestine!
While thick darkness overcast, Palestine!

So they chose this hill-top village, Palestine! Palestine!
Once the scene of strife and pillage, Palestine! Palestine!
That it might be known abroad
In this land where Jesus trod,
As in truth a "Hill of God" Palestine! Palestine!
As in truth a "Hill of God" Palestine!

The end of World War I marked the end of centuries of Turkish rule and the birth of the British Mandate in Palestine; 1948 — the end of Mandate and the Partition of Palestine; 1967 — Occupation of the West Bank and Gaza; 1987 — the beginning of the intifada. The century of Friends Girls School's existence has been a century of war and political unrest, of changing governments and occupations, of struggle for independence and self-determination, a century of challenge and opportunity for Palestinian women.

Many changes have taken place at FGS during this century of turmoil and struggle. Library books were burned to warm retreating Turkish soldiers; the piano was hauled off by music loving Brits, later to be retrieved from a desert plain near Jericho; the buildings housed dozens of Palestinians fleeing the coastal cities in 1948... one refugee child was born in a classroom; new building have been erected; the library has been enlarged; the science lab has been improved; computer classes and an Arts Program have been added to the curriculum; the boarding section has been closed; a large number of Palestinian-Americans have joined the student body; on and on, snatches of memory, facts of change can be added to the history that is Friends Girls School. No longer is FGS a primary financial project of Friends United Meeting in America, but an institution dependent on tuition and gifts for its financial existence. No longer is FGS directly guided by Friends United Meeting, but an institution under the guiding hand of a local Board of Directors.

For a hundred years the graduates of Friends Girls School have made a difference in the communities of which they were and are a part. They have filled the traditional roles of wives and mothers, as well as becoming: teachers, doctors, lawyers, political analysts, college professors, authors, artists, social workers, musicians, counselors, TV directors, principals, newscasters, religious leaders, nurses, cabinet ministers, engineers. They still carry the burdens placed upon them, as well as those they choose to carry, but what a chance they have been given!

A school is more than buildings and desks and books on a shelf. It is more than just pupils, and principal and staff. It is more than a romanticized history of what was. A school is a spirit that moves and breathes with a life of its own. It is a caring, growing and loving that matures, that educates, that assists the girl in becoming the woman she is meant to be.

For a century Friends Girls School has moved with a spirit of tolerance and love. The Moslem and Christian girls who have been part of this sisterhood know what that spirit is. They know there is an uniqueness, a specialness, of having been part of Friends Girls School.

In a letter written by a former graduate, teacher and principal of FGS these lines are found:

"The little seed planted in love and faith 75 years ago has grown into a huge tree sending out intelligent, dependable and responsible women, filling out positions in all walks of life.

We have every right to be proud of our alma mater. I am sure you will join me in fervent hopes that the doors will be open, not only for the coming seventy-five years, but for many, many seventy-five years to come".

Victoria Hannush
May 15, 1963

And in this Centennial Year of 1989, that is certainly the hope... the hope that Friends Girls School can survive to continue to be a leader in education for Palestinian women.

FRIENDS GIRLS SCHOOL SONG

Sheltered safe, among the fragrant pines
Where peace and friendship ever dwelt
Proudly stands the queen of Palestine
Our School, the Friends Girls School, we love so well.

Chorus: Dear school to thee, our praise will be...
We'll cherish 'er, thy spirit kind and pure
Our love to thee, our loyalty, ever shall, endure.

Oh hail, the blue and Quaker grey
What memories still around thee cling
Thy children still from far away
Their praises to FGS will ever ring.

Chorus: Dear school to thee, our praise will be...
We'll cherish 'er, thy spirit kind and pure
Our love to thee, our loyalty, ever shall, endure.

Special appreciation to Ellen Audi Mansur ('25), whose family's association with FGS spans the hundred years of the school's existence, for recalling the words and music of these two songs.

The children sit, when far away
 Their hearts to fit with love
 We'll cherish the heart and love
 (Our love is like an angel's love)
 The children sit, when far away

The musical score is written on five systems of two staves each. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, and slurs. The lyrics are written above the first staff of each system. The score concludes with a double bar line and a final key signature change to one sharp.

SCHOOL SONG

Florabel Rosenberger

Listen friends and you shall hear the story of our school,
The best in all of Palestine that's under Turkish rule,*
Where every girls is happy in obeying every rule,
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

From North, from South, from East and from the West,
They all agree that this one is the best,
And its honoured name you now already must have guessed
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

The bell begins to ring at six and keeps it up all day;
It rings for us to study, and it rings for us to play,
It rings for us to work, to sew, to eat, to sleep, to pray,
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

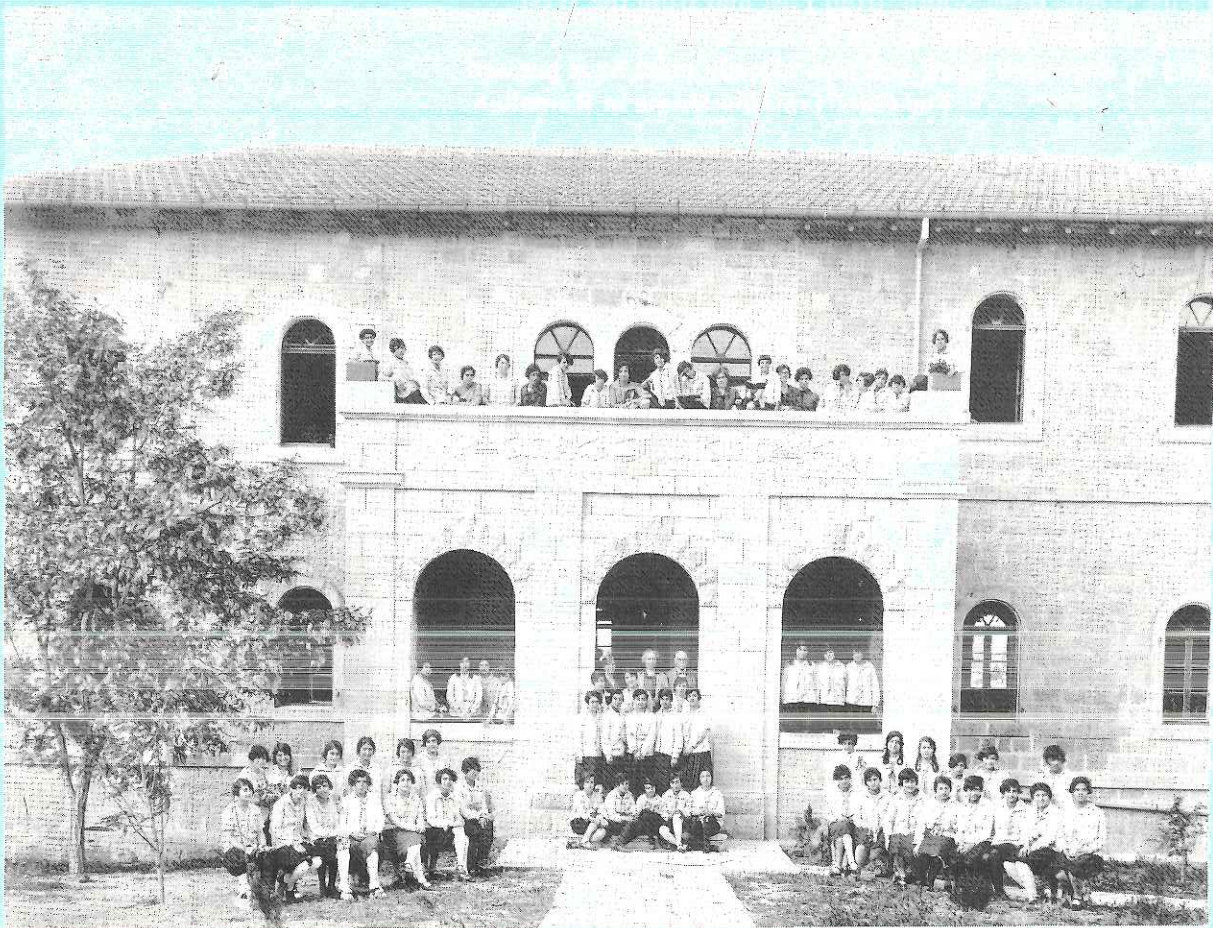

Be prompt! Be prompt! the old bell seems to say,
Be prompt! Be prompt! the hours slip away
School days soon are over, then come commencement day
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

So you see we're busy kept as any hive of bees,
But we love each nook and corner, garden and the trees,
The playground and the tennis-court could scarcely fail to please
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

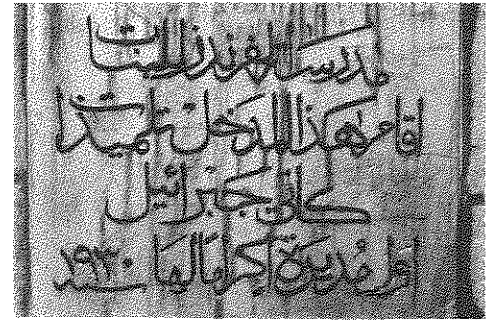

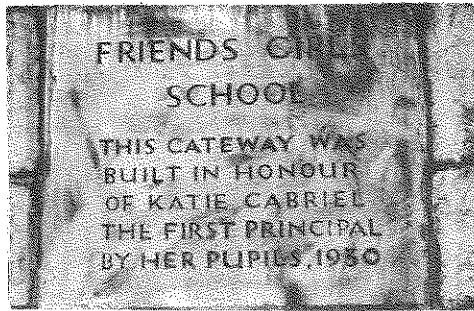

Be true! Be true! Says she who supertinds,
Be true! Be true! 'Tis the motto of the Friends,
And may this old school prosper and promote its worthy ends,
The Girls Training Home in Ramallah.

* To reflect historic events changed to:
The best in all of Jordanian Ramallah high and cool.
The best in all of Palestine in Ramallah high and cool.

Friends Girls School: Staff and Students 1927

Alice Jones' Commencement Address to the Class of 1928

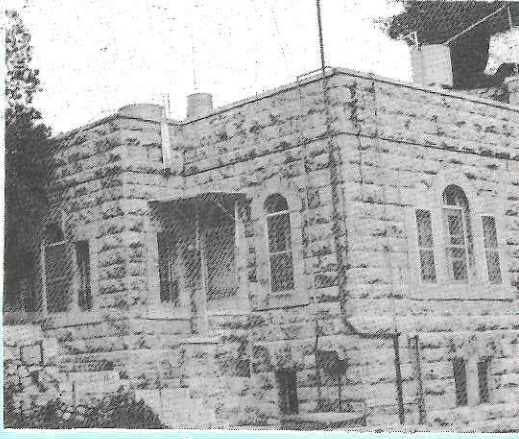

Class of 1928: You have come to perhaps the happiest moment of our school life, the moment to which you have long looked forward, and for which you have worked. It is right that you should feel glad. But there are few joys in life that have no shadows. Your gladness has a tinge of sadness in it; you will miss your school and your school will miss you. Life is ever-changing. We end one thing only to begin another. And every beginning is very important because the end depends so much on how we begin.

You are now to enter upon a larger life than you have yet lived a life of increasing responsibility. You have your dreams of what you want that life to be. Certainly you want it to be a success. If I should ask you what you mean by success; what you consider the most important thing in life; I wonder what you would answer. I once heard a sermon where the preacher asked that question, and then paused for us to think out our answers. Probably no two of us were thinking the same thing. But when he gave his answer, I think we all felt that he was right... that his answer was bigger than any of our's perhaps, yet included them all. He said that the most important thing in life is to know God. God has put within each one of us a deep longing, a dissatisfaction, because He wants us to be satisfied with nothing less than Himself. "God has made us for Himself, and the heart never rests until it finds its rest in Him".

It is this longing for God... this trying to find Him, that we call "the eternal search," because it never ends. Every soul must find God for himself, and every soul must be ever finding Him anew. To the soul that is searching God is ever revealing Himself in new ways, and is ever becoming more wonderful and more beautiful. But we must have our ears and our eyes and our hearts wide open or we may miss Him.

... Dear girls, God is ever close to every one of us, but it is easy, very easy to be so absorbed with little things that we miss the biggest thing of all. You have at times felt God, you have spoken to Him, and you have heard His voice, but your acquaintance with Him has only just begun. He will speak to you in a thousand ways if you but listen. In a thousand ways He will show Himself to you, if you will but look. Over and over you will feel Him near... if you want Him.

Go forth then to your search, ever seeking, ever finding, and life shall be a success and the best shall be yours.

TEACHERS' VARIETY SHOW

أليس صروف أسعد (١٩٢٢)

انا من يافا. والدي بعثني انا واخواتي الخمسة الى مدرسة الفرندز للبنات. كنا نسكن في القسم الداخلي. كنت آتي من يافا الى القدس بالقطار. ومن القدس الى رام الله «بالحنطور» لانه لم يكن يوجد سيارات في ذلك الوقت. احببت المدرسة كثيراً وكنت أبكي في آخر كل سنة دراسية عندما نعود الى بيوتنا للعطلة الصيفية.

كان عمري تسعة سنوات عندما ابتدأت بالذهاب الى المدرسة. في تلك الايام التلاميذ لم يذهبوا الى المدارس في سنوات مبكرة مثل اليوم. أحب تلك الايام... سنوات الدراسة كانت سبعة وبعدها كنا نتخرج. ذكريات جميلة احملها في مدرسة الفرندز... الرحلات... وامسيات السمر مع طلاب مدرسة الفرندز للبنين كانت حلوة كثير. مدرسة البنات خرجت الكثيرات في مجتمعنا... اتقى لها كل خير.

Ellen Mansour (1925)

The White Gifts habit created the feeling of helping, the love of giving.

كريمة ناصر (١٩٢٦)

انا خريجة الفرندز، ومن قبلي كانت والدتي التي تخرجت في أول دفعة للخريجات وذلك سنة ١٨٩٥. وانا فخورة بذلك. أول فتاة تخرجت من الجامعة في رام الله هي من خريجات الفرندز وهي ماري شهلا الاعرج.

خريجات الفرندز لا يجدن صعوبة في المجالات المختلفة، فخريجاتنا مارسن المهن، ومنهن الكثيرات اللاتي حصلن على مراكز عالية في المجتمع.

هنرييت سكسك فراج (١٩٣٥)

من خلال الست سنوات التي قضيتها في مدرسة الفرندز احمل ذكريات عزيزة من صداقات غالية... من ايام الاحتفالات الرياضية، الرحلات والمسرحيات والاغاني التي كنا ننشدها في قاعة المدرسة وسوق عكاظ وكثير من النشاطات.

بعد انتهاء دراستي في مدرستي الفرندز وانطلاقي الى العالم خارج اسوار المدرسة. ادركت قيمة التربية والثقافة التي اكتسبتها... وكم قدرت نوع العطاء الذي كان ينصب علينا من معلمتنا اللواتي كنّ يتحلين بالاخلاص والتفاني لعملهن معنا.

انظر الى الاعمال التي حققتها انا في حياتي كمعلمة، ككاتبة للأطفال ومقالات عديدة في المجلات والجرائد باللغتين العربية والانجليزية متخصصة في نشر المواد التربوية في عمان، القدس، لبنان وليبيا في مركزي الحالي كرئيسة شرف للمجلس الاعلى لمؤسسة بيوت الرحمة. انظر الى كل هذا واشعر في داخلي كم كان لمدرسة الفرندز للبنات الاثر الكبير في جميع ما انجزت في حياتي.

فيوليت وليلى زرو (١٩٣٩ ، ١٩٤٣)

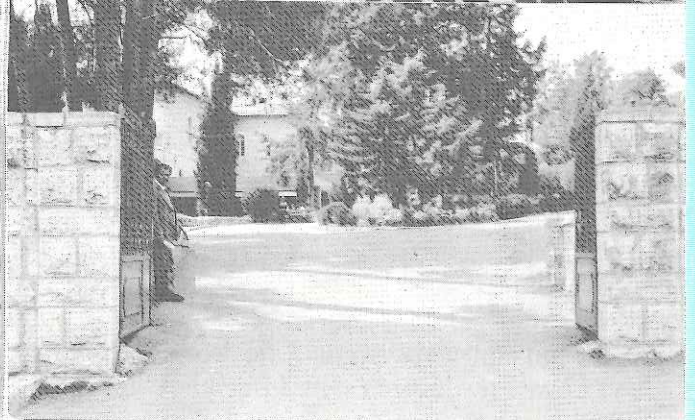

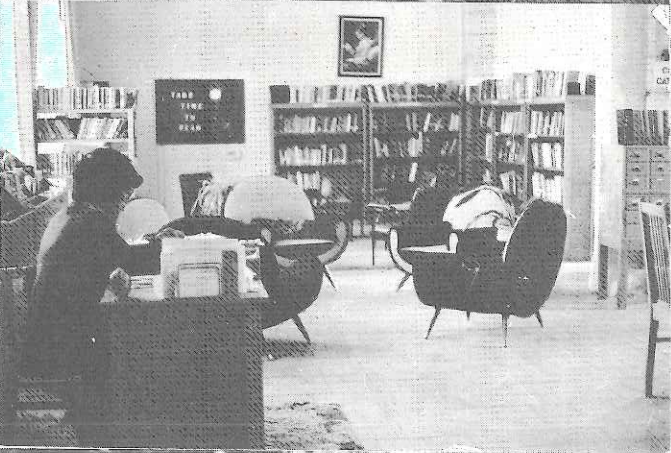

لمدرسة واحدة نشعر بالعرفان... وهي مدرسة الفرندز للبنات. مدرسة الفرندز للبنات غرست في نفوس طالباتها الوفاء، والتفهم، والمحبة والامانة قبل ان تعلمهم القراءة والكتابة والحساب. مدرسة الفرندز لها مهمة نبيلة ونتمنى ان تتحقق دائماً.

Salwa Tabri (1948)

I remember the musical plays in open doors and I loved it. Chorus opened my mind, it had an effect on my musical life.

فريده العارف عمد (١٩٥٤)

كان تعليمنا في مدرسة الفرندز للبنات مبني على قيم. «معلمتنا زهية بيبي» رسخت القومية العربية فينا بالاضافة الى تأسيسها اللتين لنا في اللغة العربية «اذكر دعمنا لدار الطفل ودار الايتام» هاتين المؤسستين اللتين تأسستا سنة ١٩٤٨ في بداية مشكلتنا وهذا ما نما فينا حب المساعدة.

Hala Rafidi Husari (1965)

I love FGS and I appreciate the quality of education I had. I hope it will continue functioning for ever. Working at FGS created awareness in me, also brought up memories I'll never forget all through my life. The extra curricular activities open to the girls gave me the opportunity to excel in many working areas before joining FGS staff.

عبلة قسيس ناصر (١٩٦٩)

عدت للعمل في مدرسة الفرندز للبنات لاني اشعر بانها جزء مني واحببت ان اكون قريبة منها. مدرسة الفرندز خلقت في ادراك و يقين واهتمامات كثيرة. اتمنى لمدرسة الفرندز حتى لو طرأت تغييرات عليها ان تبقى حاملة للرمز الذي اسست من اجله وتبقى مسندا من الطمأنينة والامان لكل طالبة من طالباتها.

Ghada Rabah (1976)

Everything in FGS is special. We were a group of problematic students but we had respect towards our teachers. From my class there are lawyers, doctors, engineers, artists. FGS opened my eyes to lots of things... my ethics classes taught me how to think and analyze.

Laila Baker (1982)

The best aspect of student life at FGS was the many extra curricular activities open to the girls. This gave us the opportunity to excell in areas other than academics alone.

لينا دعدوش (١٩٨٥)

ايما ذهبت سأظل احمل احلى الذكريات من ايام دراساتي في مدرسة الفرندز للبنات... تلك هي ايام اعتز بها جدا.

Tania Tamari Nasir (1958)

The years I have spent at Friends Girls School have been important and crucial years. They stand in my memories as positive, fruitful and most of all happy!

I have been privileged and lucky to have been an FGS student, where with the years my mind opened up to new outlets and creative experiences. My talents were nurtured and strengthened and most of all my sense of commitment and attachment to my community and country was fortified.

Many are the people at FGS that I remember with fondness; teachers, classmates, and workers, but one person stands out amongst them, Miss Asma Faris. She has long gone but her ideas and what she stood for and what she instilled in me, continues to inspire me. She selflessly and with diligence and presistence taught me and many others, the love of one's country and the responsibility to one's community. She taught me that to help one's fellowman and to stand for a just cause is a "holy" duty. She was proud of being an Arab and a Palestinian. To Asma Faris and to my FGS experience, I owe a lot. I owe the warmth of happy and fruitful years. I pray that FGS will continue to teach and inspire, and be a source of strength to many students for generations to come.

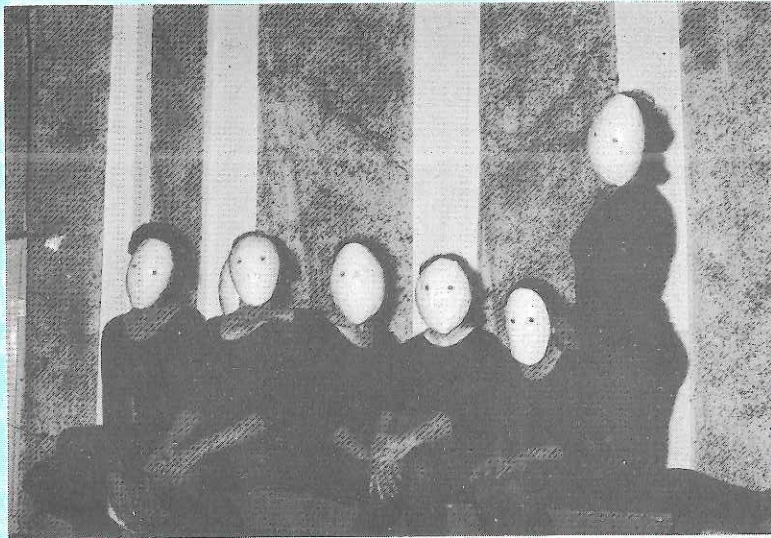

ناديه ميخائيل عبوشي (١٩٦١)

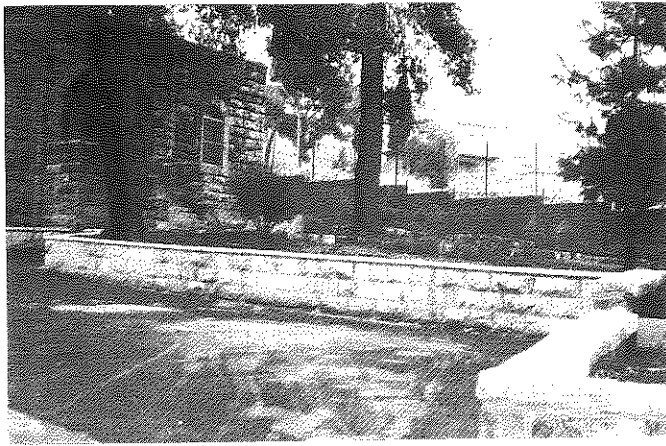

مدرسة الفرندز ساعدتني في تطوير شخصيتي... اللقاء الصباحي اعطاني الفرصة لعزف البيانو والنشاطات اللامنهجية طورت في الناحية النفسية... كل شيء كان جميلا، العلاقات بين المعلمات والتلاميذ الجوالودي الذي كان يربط الجميع. في الجامعة لم تصادفني اية صعوبات اكاديمية او اجتماعية.

حورية قرمان حاج عبد (١٩٦١)

مدرسة الفرندز خلقت في الاعتماد على النفس والاستقلالية والامانة. تعلمت الكثير من النشاطات اللامنهجية انا افتخر لكوني خريجة مدرسة الفرندز للبنات.

Manal Jamal (Graduate) 1989

Friends Girls School. It would be insufficient to describe FGS as a school, alma mater would be a more appropriate description. In a society where womyn are discriminated against and considered as the second sex, FGS has made a big difference in our lives.

For many womyn of Friends Girls School, the school has been the only place where we have been allowed to be ourselves without being rejected or judged. We have been allowed to explore, be different, and most importantly, to freely find ourselves. By the time we have graduated, we will at least have some perspective of who we are.

The true uniqueness and significance of Friends Grils School lies in the fact that it began its liberation struggle decades ago. This struggle was for the liberation of womyn, and we cannot deny that this is vital to national liberation. We have been educated in a school which put very few restrictions on us due to our sex. We were people with dreams, with hopes, with ambitions... and nobody made fun of us when we said we wanted to make a difference in the Palestinian future. We were asked to articulate ourselves more clearly. Nobody mocked us. The "sky was the limit" and we could "Expand our horizons".

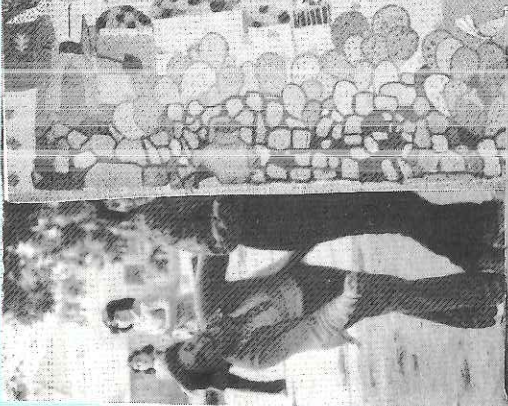

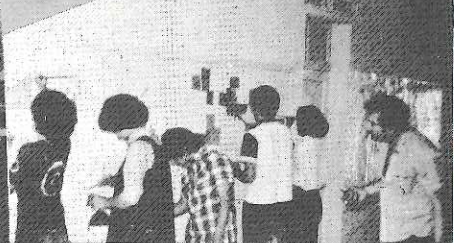

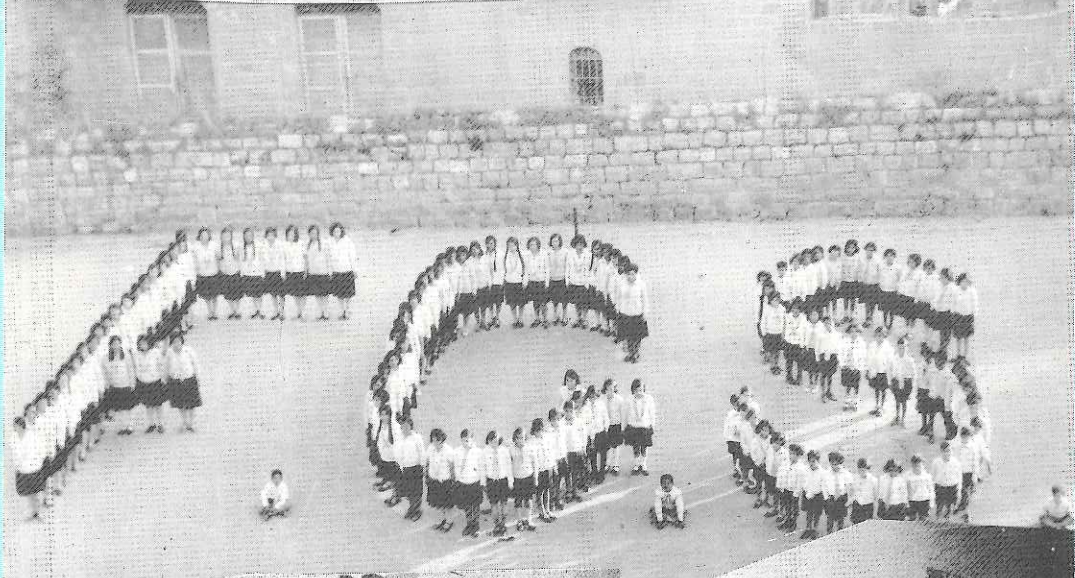

We were made conscience of the circumspect situation women live under (and being Palestinian, we already know of the circumspect situation we live under). So in our cry for liberation, we're asking for liberation in all its forms.

With all confidence and assurance, I say farewell to the day the kitchen was the farthest a womyn got. I say farewell because I know I am capable of making a difference. I've learned to be confident, because I was educated in an environment in which confidence came naturally.

I see the future and it looks bright. The liberation of Palestine is unique, because it is liberation in its truest sense. The day will come!

No longer are we the sisters and mothers of the nationalists, martyrs, and prisoners. We are them. And even before the intifada, before the revolution, we knew we could be them, because we were the womyn of Palestine.

Thank you, Friends Girls School for not destroying my dreams and for helping me solidify the pillars.

Friends Girls School Alumna

The following pages include the pictures (when available) of the graduating classes of FGS. There were no graduating classes between 1914-1921 when the schools were closed due to the First World War. The women who would have graduated during this time period are also part of the Girls School Alumna, though their names are not listed.

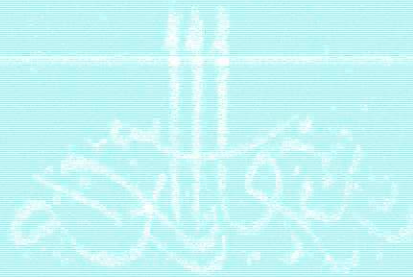

Through scanning the lists of alumna it can be noticed how FGS has been a family school. In many cases, girls, their sisters, mothers, aunts, grandmothers, and in two or three instances their great grandmothers, have been students and graduates of Friends Girls School.

There are many former students whose names are not listed here, their having left FGS before graduating to get married or to move abroad. These women, though technically having not graduated from the Girls School, are a part of the FGS family of alumna.

Among many of the graduates you will find women who returned to FGS to serve as teachers, secretaries, librarians, members of the Local Board of Directors, and in two cases, to serve as headmistress.

Following a chronological, pictorial display of graduating classes, is an alphabetical listing of alumna with their year of graduation in brackets.

(This Centennial Year of 1989, the oldest living graduate is Wadeah Garabidian Kattan (1912). Her granddaughter-in-law, Abba Kameel Nasir (69) is the current acting principal of Friends Girls School).

Friends Girls School Alumni

The following page includes the names of those who have been members of the Friends Girls School Alumni Association since its formation in 1954. It is hoped that this list will be of help to those who are interested in the school's history and to those who are interested in the school's future.

Through the help of the Friends Girls School Alumni Association, the school has been able to provide a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities for its students. The school's facilities are modern and well-equipped, and the staff is highly qualified and dedicated.

There are many reasons why the Friends Girls School is a place where students can thrive. The school's curriculum is broad and challenging, and the school's facilities are modern and well-equipped. The staff is highly qualified and dedicated, and the school's atmosphere is one of respect and achievement.

A number of the school's graduates have gone on to become leaders in their fields. The school's alumni are proud of their association with the school and are committed to supporting the school's mission and vision.

The Friends Girls School Alumni Association is a group of former students who are committed to supporting the school's mission and vision. The association is active in a number of ways, including fundraising, providing advice and support to the school, and organizing events for the school's community.
