

Dear Friends,

I hope you are all healthy and safe.

We're going through a challenge..like many other challenges life will bring our way...May this one be the toughest in your lives..

This virus won't stop you from learning new things, studying...it's just for a while that all these will happen while you're at home...

Do you know you can be wherever you can imagine....even if you're home?...Just READ... Because "a book is a magical thing that lets you travel to far-away places without ever leaving your chair."

Here you have a link you might enjoy after your e-classes(what a cool experience is that, right?!)

Do you know you can visit museums. Just sitting on your couch? There you go...

For screen-free time. You can listen to these interesting podcasts:

For the ones you care about the library's mascot. Pebbles....He was rescued...☺..He is in my home with his old friend, Sleepy...waiting to meet you again. Until then...

Stay safe. Make the most of this time with your families...and keep your spirits high! And READ!

Much love!
